The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is decorated with a traditional marbled paper pattern, often called a 'stone' or 'shell' pattern. This pattern consists of large, irregular, rounded shapes in shades of pink, red, and blue, set against a dark brown or olive green background. The colors are distributed in a way that creates a complex, organic texture. In the center of the cover, there is a rectangular white label with a thin black border. Inside this label, the text is printed in a black, serif, all-caps font, arranged in three lines. The text identifies the book as part of a library collection.
